

Effective June 4, 2007 “OUTDATED” Forms No Longer Accepted!

January 1, 2007, we underwent a name change to better align ourselves with our parent company, Old Mutual plc.

- Fidelity & Guaranty Life Insurance Company
Now OM Financial Life Insurance Company
- Fidelity & Guaranty Life Insurance Company of New York
Now OM Financial Life Insurance Company of New York

Since the name change, we have been accepting the use of forms branded with the outdated names in an effort to use up old stock and ensure that our fulfillment center is well-stocked and prepared to handle the demand for new materials.

Effective June 4, 2007, however, we will no longer be accepting any forms reflecting the old company names.

- Any outdated forms submitted will be returned to the producer.
- Requirements will be pended until such time as we receive the updated form with the appropriate company name.
- Exceptions will not be granted under any circumstances.

We apologize for any inconvenience. Continued good selling!
